

Preliminary:

AAiA is foremost an umbrella-association for national chapters. Therefore, we will either forward your application to your relating national chapter, or contact you about the founding of a new one. In some cases, it may make sense, that you join AAiA directly. Anyway, we will come back to you with proper suggestions.

You will find a list of already existing national chapters at aa-int.org, and my better apply there.

This application is not binding for you:

Depending on your case, we will deliver you the conditions / prices of the relating national chapter or make you an offer. After that, you decide whether you confirm or not.
